

How safe is your child?

How safe is your child seat?

That could depend on who makes it. Some manufacturers specialize in cutesy baby products. Bottles. Squeaky toys. Baby seats. RECARO specializes in safety seats. And only RECARO child safety seats benefit from over 30 years of racing experience. Serious stuff.

safety: from the race car to the minivan

So here's what you need to ask yourself: 1. Does my child's safety seat deliver Side Impact Protection? 2. Does it use energy-absorbing foam in sensitive shoulder, chest and head areas? 3. Does it adjust as my child grows? 4. Is it comfy? Even for long trips? 5. Does it give me the peace-of-mind I need as a parent? For the answers to these and other serious questions, visit recaro.com.
